THE MINISTER OF TRIBAL AFFAIRS (SHRI P.R. KYNDIAH): (a) The Planning Commission has issued guidelines for the preparation of schemes/ programmes under Tribal Sub-Plan (TSP), wherein provisions have been made to constitute State Level as well as District and Block Level Monitoring Committees.

(b) and (c) Planning Commission has informed that State Governments of Orissa and Assam have constituted such Committees. The Government of West Bengal has also constituted a State level Monitoring Committee. The Planning Commission has again requested the State Governments which have not implemented the guidelines, to constitute these committees at each level.

Schemes for Primitive Tribal Groups in Sikkim

3018. SHRI O.T. LEPCHA: Will the Minister of TRIBAL AFFAIRS be pleased to state:

(a) the details of the primitive tribal groups in the country, State-wise particularly in Sikkim;

(b) whether Government have formulated any specific scheme for welfare and development of these tribal groups;

(c) if so, the details thereof;

(d) the details of targets fixed and the steps taken so far by Government and to achieve the same; and

(e) if not, the reasons therefor?

THE MINISTER OF TRIBAL AFFAIRS (.SHRI P.R. KYNDIAH): (a) There are 75 (Seventy-five) notified Primitive Tribal Groups (PTGs) in 18 States and one Union Territory (UT). The State-wise and UT-wise details of notified Primitive Tribal Groups (PTGs) in the country are given in the Statement. (See below). There is no Primitive Tribal Group in the State of Sikkim.

(b) to (d) The Ministry has been implementing a specific 100% Central Sector Scheme namely 'Development of Primitive Tribal Groups' since 1998-99 for development of PTGs. Under the scheme, financial assistance is provided to State Governments and Non-Governmental Organisations for housing, infrastructure development, cattle development, agricultural development, educational development, income generating programmes, health-care programmes and social security, etc. The scheme is demand driven and based on proposals submitted by State Governments and Non-Governmental Organisations. This Ministry has, in 2004-05, also lanuched an insurance scheme for social security, known as the Janashree Bima Yojana to cover all families of PTGs. The scheme is implemented through the Life Insurance Corporation of India under the umbrella scheme of 'Development of Primitive Tribal Groups' and insures the head of each PTG family for five years against accidental death, permanent disability, natural death, partial disability, etc. The Ministry has released Rs. 20.47 crore up to 2006-07, to cover 4,09,500 heads of PTG families at a premium of Rs. 500/-per head.

Under the scheme of Development of Primitive Tribal Groups, the Ministry has released Rs. 75.15 crore in total including the funds released for Janashree Bima Yojana during last three years.

(e) Does not arise.
